THE JJ PFISTER STORY

In 1869, an enterprising 25-year-old named John Jacob Pfister emigrated from Switzerland to San Francisco. Having learned the knitting trade back home, the young entrepreneur opened his own clothing and knittinb business. He specialized in active wear for swimming, golf, tennis, and even baseball and football uniforms. Over the next 25 years, the J.J. Pfister Knitting Co. would become known as one of the highest quality clothing operations in the U.S. The J.J. Pfister label on your sporting wear was an assurance that you had bought the best.

Our patriarch J.J.'s passion was knitting: ours is distilling. The businesses might be a little different, but we bring the same entrepreneurial spirit and quality obsession to distilling as J.J. did to knitwear. In 2017, we launched the J.J. Pfister Distilling Company and named our company in his honor. Our brand icon, a combination of a traditional knitting machine and a copper still, represents both the heritage and future of our family.

Proudly located in Sacramento, California, J.J. Pfister is an award-winning craft spirits distillery – with a portfolio that includes gin, vodka, bourbon, rye whiskey, brandy and rum.
